
Married.

The Oologah hotel was the scene of a quiet wedding, at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening of last week, when O. E. Hamblen, a promising young lawyer of that city, was joined in matrimony to Miss Modie Akin, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Akin, the proprietors of the hotel. The young couple have a bright and promising future before them, and their many friends, both in their home town and Claremore, join in wishing them a happy future.
